

Appendix 1

The Jockey Club CPS Limited Heritage Working Group

Chairman

Dr LEE Ho-yin

Dr LEE is the Head of the Division of Architectural Conservation Programmes (ACP) in the Faculty of Architecture, The University of Hong Kong. Besides being a well-published academic, he is also an experienced practitioner in built-heritage conservation, having been appointed by government agencies in Hong Kong, Mainland China and overseas as an advisor or a consultant in conservation projects. He is the Founding Vice-President of The Hong Kong Institute of Architectural Conservationists, an Associate Member of The Hong Kong Institute of Architects, and an Honorary Affiliate Membership of the American Institute of Architects (Hong Kong Chapter).

Members

(In alphabetical order of last names)

Mrs Margaret Eileen BROOKE

Surveyor by profession, Mrs BROOKE has been advocating developments in heritage conservation and sustainable built environment, serving a number of bodies, including the Heritage Hong Kong Foundation Limited, the Harbourfront Commission and its Task Forces on Hong Kong Island and Kai Tak. Mrs BROOKE is Chief Executive Officer of Professional Property Services Limited.

Mr Stephen CHAN, Chit-kwai, BBS, JP

Mr CHAN is an active supporter for heritage conservation in the local community. He was appointed as a Justice of the Peace in 2000 and was awarded the Bronze Bauhinia Star Medal in 2012 for his community services over the years. Mr CHAN is Chairman of the Conservancy Association Centre for Heritage, Member of the Antiquities Advisory Board and the Intangible Culture Heritage Advisory Committee.

Mr Andrew LAM, Siu-lo, JP

Town Planner by profession, Mr LAM is an active supporter for heritage conservation and cultural development. He serves on a number of government advisory committees, including as Chairman of the Antiquities Advisory Board and Board Member of the West Kowloon Cultural District Authority.

Mr Dick LEE, Ming-kwai, GBS

Mr LEE retired from the office of Commissioner of Police in 2007 after 34 years of distinguished service, including several years at the former Central Police Station. Mr LEE was awarded the Gold Bauhinia Star Medal in 2007 for his outstanding public service. He is now Executive Director for the Hong Kong Institute for Public Administration.

Ms Susanna SIU, Lai-kuen

Received her Master in Conservation from the University of York in the United Kingdom and Master in Architecture from the Tsinghua University in Beijing, Ms SIU is an experienced museum curator and specialised in heritage conservation. Ms SIU is currently the Executive Secretary of the Antiquities and Monuments Office and has been serving as an adjunct associate professor of the History Department of The Chinese University of Hong Kong since 2000, teaching a course on the antiquities and monuments of Hong Kong.

Dr Joseph TING, Sun-pao

Dr TING is a well-known expert in Hong Kong history, retired from the office of Chief Curator of the Hong Kong Museum of History in 2007. He is serving on numerous boards and committees, such as the Antiquities Advisory Board, the Council of the Lord Wilson Heritage Trust, the Intangible Culture Heritage Advisory Committee. Dr TING is Adjunct Professor of the Department of History, The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Ex-Officio Members

Director of CPS

Head of Heritage